COVID-19 Resources

- If you have a hardship related to COVID-19, visit the CFPB's mortgage and housing assistance portal.
- Homeowner Assistance Fund (HAF) in the U.S Department of the Treasury and National Council of State Housing Agencies to provide financial assistance to eligible homeowners who have suffered financial hardships during the COVID-19 National Emergency.

U.S. Military Service Members

- If you or any occupant of your home are or recently were on active military duty or related active service, you may be eligible for benefits and protections under the federal Servicemembers Civil Act (SCRA).
- As a servicemember you may also find assistance by speaking with someone at your local legal assistance office.

Counseling Resources

- The Federal government provides housing counselors, which you can access via the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau or Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) or by calling (800) 569–4287.
- The Federal-State Unemployment Insurance Program offers benefits to unemployed people who meet state eligibility requirements. Visit CareerOneStop.org to learn about your state's requirements.
- Counseling is also available at no charge from HUD-approved counselors through the HOPE Hotline: (888) 995-HOPE. This housing counseling on-demand service is available 24 hours a day/7-days a week.
